10. (a) [Employment Security Board.] Administration Organization.

[The administration of this Article is hereby placed under the direction and supervision of the Department of Employment Security, under the Employment Security Board, which Board shall consist of a chairman and two associate members, who shall each take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution before entering upon the duties of his office. The members of said Board on June 1, 1947, shall continue to hold office during the term for which appointed. Upon the expiration of each of said terms, the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint a successor who shall hold office for the term of six years, and until his successor is duly appointed and qualified. Any vacancy occurring during a term shall be filled by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for the unexpired portion of the term. The Chairman of the Board and the associate members shall each receive such remuneration in such amount or amounts as may be fixed by the Standard Salary Board, and they shall devote their full time to the duties of their office. Any two members shall constitute a quorum. No vacancy shall impair the right of the remaining members to exercise the powers conferred upon the Board under the provisions of this Article.] The administration of this Article is hereby placed under the direction and supervision of the Department of Employment Security under a full-time salaried Executive Director and a Board of Appeals as hereinafter constituted. The administrative functions heretofore exercised by the Employment Security Board, which Board is hereby abolished, except those provided for by the second paragraph of Section 6(c), Sections 6(e), 6(f), 6(g), 6(h), 6(i), 14(a)(4), the second paragraph of Section 14(b), Section 14(c), and Section 15(b) of this Article from and after the effective date hereof shall be exercised by said Executive Director. Wherever within this Article the word "Board" appears, it shall be construed to mean Executive Director except where the word "Board"
